Andrew

Journalism is like trying to give birth. It's a lot of hard work, but in the end, the finished product is magnificent.

"Karate"

John Lithgow once said that the greatest things you do in life will scare you. The idea of earning a black belt really scared me at first, but I'm glad I took on the challenge because it made me stronger as a person.

-Siomha Moore

"Knife Throwing"

Walking through the halls of Blanco high school, you may not know that this young man could aim, and throw a knife directly at a bulls-eye. Think twice about bullying this guy.

Ty Brady, Jr.

Daniel Culpepper, Sr.

"Eating Salt and Playing Guitar"

Besides eating salt and writing poetry, Daniel enjoys singing and playing guitar, some of his talents were unleashed at the Senior Celebration day.

Tyler Griffin, Sr.
"Skateboarding"

After much persuasion and peer pressure, the yearbook committee got Tyler Griffin to show us some of his skateboarding talents.

Wal-Mart

We all do it, run around Wal-Mart riding the children's bikes, and messing with toys until we get kicked out...ok, maybe not all of us.

In high school, we don't get recess, so Wal-Mart has been officially designated as our high school's playground.

iPod Craze

The past few years have been full of many trends that wash in and out, but one thing that has come to play an important role in the lives of Blanco High's students are iPods. From Shuffles to Touches, almost every student can be found with white earbuds dangling from their ears.

{Inside School}

Fashion Trends

Erika Martinez

Erika models some of the latest trends from the past school year. Particularly, the bright colors of summer dresses, and skirts.

The year's instant classic - mini-skirts or jumpers and tights underneath Flats - another thing every girl has in her closet.

Looking back over these trends has made us realize something, it seems that lately, our fellow students have somehow created a way to travel back in time and steal the fashion trends from the 1980's. From leggings under skirts, to haircuts, to the infamous converse shoes, we dress to impress. We are, whether we know it or not, venturing back to the yesteryears to seek guidance from the elders on fashion do's and don'ts.

National Honor Society

"I am really proud of the way we have been able to contribute to our community and work together" -Siomha Moore, 2007-2008 NHS President

Trick-or-Treat for Canned Goods

Honor and Service

National Honor Society members maintain good academic standing with a 90 or above GPA. They uphold integrity and honor while helping their community. NHS members have collected canned goods for the food bank, prepared food for the homeless on Thanksgiving, raised money to help pay the medical bills of Marietta Vargas, helped with Toys for Tots at a local church and coordinated a Bowl-A-Thon to raise money for "Wounded Warriors", a charity which aids soldiers in Iraq and their families.

"Working with the kids of the NHS has really made my year enjoyable. Thank you, Macy."

-Mrs. Wier, NHS Sponsor

"Paul, Justin, and I got together. Our NHS helped prepare a nice meal for the homeless."

LEO Club

Leadership, Experience, Opportunity

The LEO Club is a service organization for teens. Their work in the community this year has included visiting residents of the local Nursing Home and assembling care packages for our brave soldiers fighting in Iraq.

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY IN DAILY EFFORT

Pride lines may be long, but well worth the wait!

Seriously, how cool is P.R.I.D.E.? Not only do students get great food but they also get half an hour to mingle! LUCK-Y!

F.C.C.L.A. CREED

We are Family, Career, and Community leaders of America. We face the future with warm courage and high hope. For we have a clear consciousness of seeking old and precious values. For we are the builders of homes, homes for America's future. Homes where living will be the expression of everything that is good and fair. Homes where truth and love and faith and security will be realities, not dreams. We are Family, Career, and Community leaders of America. We face the future with warm courage and high hope.

ADMISSION:

So what is it that one must do in order to receive an invitation to this super club? That's easy. Pass all your classes and don't get a referral!

Powder Puff

Girls can play football, too!

The annual Powder Puff Football game creates a match-up of the junior girls vs. the senior girls. The defending champs came back to claim their title two years in a row. The class of 2008 takes another victory in Powder Puff Football on Monday, January 28, 2008. This year, the seniors trailed in the first half but they came back strong in the second half as they scored two touch downs.

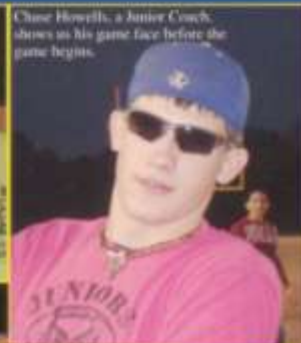

The final score was Seniors-14, Juniors-6. Senior touch downs were scored by Emily Blackburn and Sarah Kocurek with the extra two points brought in by Emily Blackburn with a QB sneak. Carla Martinez did an excellent job for the juniors scoring a touch down in the second half. An outstanding effort by both teams made for great entertainment.

Valedictorian

Rebecca Kamas

Rebecca Rae Kamas, daughter of Stacy Kamas and James Kamas, has attended Blanco public schools since the first grade, maintaining a high school grade point average of 103.5ish. She has one brother Nicolas, who graduated Valedictorian of the Class of 2007, and an extended family, including step-mom Janice Woods, as well as Kellie, Kevin and Greyson Shaw.

Rebecca has been an active participant in University Interscholastic League since the second grade. Throughout high school, she has competed in Science, Social Studies and Debate. As a freshman, Rebecca was on the third place state social studies team.

As a four-year member of the National Forensic League, Rebecca has been an outstanding Lincoln-Douglas debater. She has won numerous local tournaments, qualified for the Texas Forensic Association State Competition her sophomore year, and competed in the UIL state meet twice. Rebecca is the 2007-2008 Division 2A UIL Lincoln-Douglas Debate State Champion.

During her sophomore year, Rebecca was inducted into the National Honor Society. She is also a member of the Blanco High School Leo Club and the Student Council. Rebecca is a National AP Scholar with Distinction and a National Merit Scholar. Rebecca was voted Most Likely to Succeed by her senior class.

Rebecca was accepted to many prestigious universities throughout the country including the University of Texas, Trinity, Southwestern, Rice, Duke, University of Chicago, Georgetown and University of Pennsylvania, three of which rank among the top ten schools in the country. Rebecca will attend the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service where she plans to study International Politics.

Salutatorian

Siomha Moore

Siomha Maeve Moore, the only child of Brendan W. Moore and Susan R. Moore, has been a part of Blanco Schools since the 5th grade. Throughout her high school career, she has maintained a 103-grade point average and will graduate with a distinguished diploma.

Siomha is a National Merit Commended Scholar and an AP Scholar With Honor. She served as the President of the LEO Club in 2006, its charter year, and was elected President of the National Honor Society for 2007-2008. She has also served as the Editor of the Yearbook and as an author and photographer for the school paper.

Siomha and her debate partner, Kirstin Weber are the UIL District 2A State Champions in Cross Examination Debate for 2008.

Siomha has been active in American Karate since 2003. She was awarded the rank of first degree black belt in 2007 and is currently working as a Karate Instructor.

She will attend the University of Notre Dame where she will study English and Education. She plans to pursue a career as a high school teacher or a college professor.

►► Seniors work hard to raise money for the "big event"

project graduation

The senior class has been busy with project graduation this year. There have been many events at which seniors have earned hours toward paying for the big event at the end of the year, Project Graduation. There were numerous fun events this year including: the golf tournament, the carnival, selling candles, pass the potty, the powder puff game, Spaghetti dinner, the celebrity dinner, silent auctions, UIL concession stand and the senior volleyball game.

The Big Event

BHS graduates moved their tassels, tossed their hats, then piled on a bus for one last night of fun before they entered the "real world." This year's project graduation was held in Marble Falls at the bowling alley.

Hungry Graduates

Seniors were happy to sit down for a nice meal after a night of excitement and emotion.

Thoughts on Blanco...

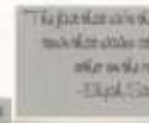

Blanco is an extremely small town - but it still has a wide variety of people. It's one the richest communities that exists - and it's one the poorest looking neighborhoods. Blanco is special because you can find all of these kinds of people in such a small area."
-Leticia Smith

"I love Blanco! You feel comfortable around almost everyone because for the most part you know them."
-Leticia Baker

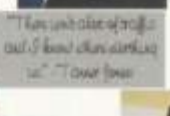

"The only thing I like about Blanco is all the friendly people."
-Anthony Velaz

"The fact that you're the only town that exists in such a nice area is the best."
-Eliza Sanchez

"The culture made the sports fun."
-Madeline Ritz

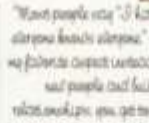

"I love that there are people that I know that are working on."
-Taylor Solida

"When the big city is big and then the small town is used proudly and has lots of soul."
-Tyler Smith

"You know everyone and you don't really like to worry about your safety."
-Trevin Towner

"When people say 'I like Blanco because everyone knows everyone' but that's actually we friends connect instead of meeting a ton of new people and building surface relationships. You get to know everyone and have the opportunity to build real connections with the community."
-Angelica Ariza

"I like how there are no stereotypes and you can be anything you want to be and you can be anything you like to be and you can be anything you like to be."
-Madeline Ritz

in the grand old state of Texas, beneath fair southern skies, you'll find some lads and lassies in whom love and honor lie,
we are gay and free and happy, and courage we do hold, for we're the true defenders of the blue and the gold. In
